

CrashCourse: French Revolution

The French Revolution exchanged an authoritarian regime for _____

Why did France have a problem collecting taxes?

What did the 3rd estate do after votes were deadlocked in the Estates-General?

CrashCourse: French Revolution

The French Revolution exchanged an authoritarian regime for _____

Why did France have a problem collecting taxes?

What did the 3rd estate do after votes were deadlocked in the Estates-General?

What was the main reason the Bastille was stormed?

Why was the 1st stage not all that revolutionary?

Why would monarchs, such as king Leopold, actively try to restore the French monarchy? (Even so far as going to war to accomplish it!)

How did the guillotine represent Enlightenment ideals?

What did the death of King Louis XVI mark?

Why did the Committee of Public Safety change the measurements of time?

What title was Napoleon given in 1799? What did this grant him?

How was the French Revolution not that 'revolutionary'?

Why was the French Revolution more revolutionary than the American Revolution?

BONUS*: Can you spot John Green's mistake?

What was the main reason the Bastille was stormed?

Why was the 1st stage not all that revolutionary?

Why would monarchs, such as king Leopold, actively try to restore the French monarchy? (Even so far as going to war to accomplish it!)

How did the guillotine represent Enlightenment ideals?

What did the death of King Louis XVI mark?

Why did the Committee of Public Safety change the measurements of time?

What title was Napoleon given in 1799? What did this grant him?

How was the French Revolution not that 'revolutionary'?

Why was the French Revolution more revolutionary than the American Revolution?

BONUS*: Can you spot John Green's mistake?